Ron & Sharon H.
CBM Missionaries
in India

Ron on what brought them to serve in India ...

"We had been on a short-term mission to Mexico. On the way back, both Sharon and I felt maybe in retirement we would like to do something like that, cross cultural ministry. One morning while doing my devotion, thinking about our future, remembering this desire, it was like a voice came to me: 'Why not now?' Sharon too was excited at the thought."

Ron on the best part of ministering in India ...

"The friends, our colleagues on the India team, the pastors and spouses, their joy to come together, their commitment to the Lord!"

Ron on the hardest part of ministering in India ...

"At first we tried to go to India (1999) for long term but could not get a long-term visa so had to come home after four months when our visa ended. Since then, we tried once more for a long-term visa but again failed. So now we go for seven weeks and do six workshops and church visits, day retreats, and school seminary visits. We try to take new people with us each year to bring fresh ideas and faces from Canada. The rest of the year we work at Lethbridge First Baptist Church, where Ron is Associate Pastor of Adult Ministries and Sharon, Director of Children's Ministries."

Ron on what life is like in Rwanda ...

"India is very colorful ... from the flowers to the ladies in their sarees. People work very hard; life is busy; there is a refreshing mix of the ancient with the modern.

There is a real thirst for Jesus, and most of our churches there are very alive and growing. That is why there is resistance from the radical Hindu groups. The country is the world's most populated democracy. Even though it is 84% Hindu and only 12% Muslim, it is still the second largest Muslim nation in the world!

Food is spicy - hot curries and rice.

The people persevere and have a patience few of us could match. Competition there is much more pressing than here. Simple survival for many is the main struggle of daily existence.

They have three seasons, hot, hotter, and hottest! Hottest is May, June and can reach 50 degrees C!"
